The proud sum of 5,220 euros was handed over to the Caritasverband für die Diözese Würzburg e. V. on Tuesday, May 10, 2022. For this purpose, the management of the internationally operating company WEGMANN automotive had invited to the company headquarters in Veitshöchheim. "We are truly grateful," said Cathedral Chaplain Clemens Bieber, Chairman of the Caritasverband für die Diözese Würzburg e. V. (Caritas Association for the Diocese of Würzburg), and assured that the generous donation would quickly be put to good use for the refugee women and children who have found a new home in Lower Franconia. "The idea for this fundraising campaign came directly from the workforce after the outbreak of war," explained Managing Director Markus Vogler. The management had then decided to increase the amount.

Bieber gave an overview of the many fields of work of Caritas in Lower Franconia, ranging from pregnancy counseling to support for the dying and their relatives, with a current focus on migration counseling. For its work, Caritas also depends on generous donations, he said. "I like to remind people of the phrase of our former Minister of Labor Norbert Blüm, that you have to do good and talk about it so that others will take it as an example and do the same."

WEGMANN automotive is the world market leader for balancing weights in the field of cars, trucks, buses and various industrial applications, supplying all well-known automotive manufacturers as well as the leading spare parts trade organizations.

"I ask you to also pass on our thanks to the many colleagues who made this donation possible in the first place," said Domkapitular Bieber, bidding farewell and wishing the company continued success.
